

Client John Holland Pty Ltd

Location Telarah St Rail Bridge, Maitland NSW

Details The bridge demolition works required intricate planning and structural certification to ensure the proposed deconstruction methodology could be carried out within a weekend shutdown.

Decotec's own qualified demolition supervisors and professional engineers provided the expertise to enable the successful delivery of the project was completed on time without jeopardising safety, quality, or the environment.

